PASTOR'S BREAKFAST

Chicago, Ill. (April 6, 2010) – Pastors from 20 churches in Chicago's Englewood neighborhood and the far south suburbs came together at Alden Wentworth Rehabilitation and Health Care Center on Saturday, March 27 to discuss how they could work together to make a difference in the community and learn about unique community-based programs available to their congregations. Participants learned about Alden Wentworth's new 'Quarterly Series on the Aging Process,' a series of five educational programs presented by Alden staff upon request at outside organizations, including area churches. Charlene Hill-Jeon, Administrator, Alden Wentworth Rehabilitation and Health Care Center, also announced that the rehab center will be hosting a Gospel Fest that will be open to the community in August. In addition, Officer Howard Lindsey, Chicago Police Department Alderman/Pastor Liaison Officer for District 7, spoke about his role in the community and invited participants to join in his efforts to support positive change in the community.

Located at 1201 W. 69th St. in Chicago, Alden Wentworth Rehabilitation and Health Care Center offers the finest in rehabilitation, combining the best of comprehensive medical and therapy services. Alden Wentworth offers programs that address the needs of short-term therapy and orthopedic rehabilitation patients as well as long-term residents. The newly renovated state-of-the-art rehabilitation center offers comprehensive medical and therapy services, including Optimal Rehabilitation program, which offers physical, occupational and speech therapies up to seven days a week to promote optimal rehabilitation outcomes. Guests also enjoy world-class amenities, including 24-hour security system, free wireless Internet access, cable television and more.
