LINCOLN PARK NURSE NAMED ‘HERO IN LONG-TERM CARE’

Lincoln Park, Ill. (May 20, 2010) – Alden Lincoln Park Rehabilitation and Health Care Center’s Dufie Boakye, L.P.N., was recently selected a ‘Hero in Long-Term Care’ by the Illinois Health Care Association and the Illinois Council on Long Term Care. Boayke, who is a nurse at the rehabilitation center, was selected for positively impacting the facility’s quality of life and her commitment to serving the needs of residents and their families. She received a certificate of recognition as part of National Nursing Home Week.

Dufie Boakye, L.P.N., is loved, respected and sought-after by residents and physicians at the rehabilitation and health care center. Her dedication to providing quality care, with a sunny disposition, has earned her the reputation as the ‘go-to’ nurse at the rehabilitation center. Boakye prides herself on providing excellent care and consistently exceeds the expectations of residents and families.

“We consistently receive compliments from residents and their families about how Dufie made a difficult time better through her caring words, encouragement and attention to their medical care,” says Carrie Groulx, administrator, Alden Lincoln Park. “One resident recently told me, 'Dufie is the best. If every nurse was like Dufie Boakye, this world would be a better place.' I couldn't agree more."

Dufie Boakye is what makes Alden Lincoln Park special.
