SKOKIE RESIDENT NAMED HERO IN LONG-TERM CARE

Des Plaines, Ill. (June 4, 2010) – Skokie resident Natalia Luskin, R.N., was recently selected a ‘Hero in Long Term Care’ by the Illinois Health Care Association and the Illinois Council on Long Term Care. Luskin, who is a staff nurse at Alden Courts of Des Plaines Memory Care Assisted Living Community in Des Plaines, was selected for positively impacting the facility’s ‘quality of life’ and their commitment to serving the needs of the patients, residents and their families. She received a certificate of recognition as part of National Nursing Home Week.

“Natalia is well known throughout the facility for her compassion and energy,” says Margie Hernandez, executive director, Alden Courts of Des Plaines Memory Care Assisted Living Community. “She is highly respected by her peers and appreciated by residents and their family members because of the way she cares for everyone. Natalia adapts her plan of care to include and meet the specific needs of her residents so she can provide the best care possible to each and every resident. She shows great concern for the welfare of others and is always actively involved in taking the initiative to find solutions to challenges.”
